

DECLARATION OF DAVID WROBEL

COUNTY OF CLEVELAND) ) SS.
STATE OF OKLAHOMA)

1. My name is David Wrobel. I am the Dean of the University of Oklahoma College of Arts & Sciences. I have been a professor at the University of Oklahoma since 2011. I was appointed as Interim Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences in 2017 and was appointed permanent Dean in June 2018. I am over the age of eighteen years of age. I am personally knowledgeable of the facts contained herein.

2. I have reviewed the allegations made by an anonymous declarant which was filed in case number 21-CV-1022-G and attached as Exhibit 2 to Plaintiffs' Consolidated Reply in Support of Their Motion for a Preliminary Injunction [Doc 66]. In the declaration, the witness alleges that he or she, "was informed by my Department Chair that the Office of the Dean of the Arts and Sciences College had instructed them that, because of H.B. 1775, I can no longer test students on Critical Race Theory in my Human Relations class, Human Relations Theory, a class in the Human Relations Department about social categorization and its impact on systems of power.

3. I categorically deny that I ever advised the Chair of the Department of Human Relations that professors within that department (or in any department, for that matter) could not teach or test on the topic of Critical Race Theory. I deny that I enforced any of the terms of H.B. 1775 against any faculty under my supervision. The decision of what to teach and the topics over which the professors test are wholly within the discretion of the professors in accordance with the concept of Academic Freedom.
